

THE BLOOMINGDALE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
presents the ninth annual

Join us for a casual evening
featuring local amateur and professional chefs who prepare tastings of their favorite recipes for public sampling and judging to help support area schools.

Each cook and one helper will be admitted free to the event.

Prizes will be awarded to the best dish in each category (i.e. appetizer, side, entrée, dessert) for both amateur and professional levels as well as for the best station decoration.

Cooks agree to:

- Prepare a minimum of 200-250 sample-size servings of their favorite recipe. A serving is considered to be 1-2 forkfuls or bites. There is no cost to participate in this event other than purchasing ingredients for the recipe served.
- Attend a chef orientation meeting in late August/early September where health and safety issues will be reviewed.
- Provide clean and sanitized cooking utensils and equipment as needed (i.e. crock-pots, roasters, coolers, chafing dishes, sterno, etc.); and decorations for their station (strongly encouraged)

The Bloomington Chamber of Commerce will provide:

- Shared banquet table space (maximum of 4 ft.) with basic table covering and electricity for those who request it
- Water for chafing dishes and additional ice for coolers
- Small plates, bowls, plastic forks and spoons, napkins for serving and trash cans for clean up
- Hand-washing stations with paper towels and soap dispensers as well as gloves for preparing and serving food
- Gift bags and bottled water for the chefs
